

What's Happening with I-465?

You and your neighbors are invited to learn more about planned changes to I-465, and have a greater voice on how it affects your neighborhood.

Please join us to hear from INDOT, meet neighbors, and enjoy free ice cream!

Tuesday, August 6th from 6pm to 8:00 p.m.

This event is being hosted by Bethany Community Gardens.

It will be held inside the air-conditioned Bethany Lutheran Church, 4702 South East St.

(Southwest section of I-465 and US 31 intersection; just north of the old Bob Evans site).

6:30 p.m. INDOT Presentation on I-465 Reconfiguration Project
Indiana Department of Transportation will be adding traffic lanes and replacing three bridges over I-465. Learn how this project will affect you. Look at maps! Ask Questions! INDOT wants your input!

Bethany Community Gardens: Building Community Through Gardening since 2018

- Come learn about great things happening in your community and how you can become involved.
- We are in the beginning stages of forming a neighborhood association for the area immediately south of I-465.
- When we work together as a group, we have a better chance of getting things done.

- Join the garden volunteers on Tuesday evenings at 6pm through October for hands-on learning on how to garden.
- All garden produce from Bethany Community Gardens is given away to two local food pantries and to the garden volunteers.
- Come Learn and Help Others.

Tuesday, September 17th. 6:00 p.m. Food Preservation Class.

- Taught by Ginny Roberts, Purdue Extension Urban Garden Specialist.
- Learn tricks and techniques for preserving your garden produce.
- Location: Bethany Lutheran; 4702 South East St.
- Register for class: <https://bit.ly/2XTq55>

If you can not attend on August 6th, go to this site and tell us if you want to be updated on: 1) I-465, 2) the new neighborhood association, and/or 3) Bethany Community Gardens. <https://bit.ly/2Ya8LK2>
